HOBBY STOCKS, SATURDAY AUGUST 22, 1987

BLANKENSHIP & HORST SATURDAY HOBBY WINNERS

In the Hobby Stock oval main, Ed Horst took over the lead on lap five just before a caution flag for a three car tangle on the front stretch. Blankenship had already moved from his 20th starting position to sixth place and three laps later he moved into second behind Horst. Blankenship and McLean motored by Horst on lap sixteen and Blankenshp pulled away for the win while Horst passed McLean to reclaim second with McLean finishing third.

The same trio ended up dueling it out in the Hobby Stock figure 8 main. McLean had taken the lead on lap three with Blankenship second and Horst third. Beginning the last lap in the same order, Blankenship tried to move to the outside around the last corner and McLean, trying to protect his lead also went wide leaving the door open for Horst who got by both leaders and beat McLean to the wire by five feet. Blankenship was third by the same distance.
